MONDAY EVENING, JAN 18

BORLD UPTOWN OFFICE-1287 BROADWAT-

BOTTH GTH ST. WASHINGTON-610 14TH ST LONDON OFFICE-32 COCKSPUR ST., THAPAL

The Evening World Prints Asso-

A Gain of 36,213 PER DAY

clated Press News.

The following figures are taken from the books of THE WORLD and are SUBJECT TO ANY TEST or comparison to which esteemed contemporaries may be pleased to subject them: Tetal number of WORLDS printed bona fide suring December, 1890 ... 9,208,780 Total number of WORLDS printed bond fide furing December 10,331,420

Total gain for

1891.... 1,122,640

AVERAGE PER DAY FOR DECEMBER, 1890. 297.058.

AVERAGE FER DAY FOR DECEMBER, 1891.

333,271. AVERAGE GAIN PER DAY FOR 1891.

36,213.

INCREASE IN ADVERTISING.

During the month of 59.014 A Gain of 6,355

Advertisements.

hold itself responsible for the return or safe-keeping of any rejected manuscripts or pictures. of whateverer character or value. No exceptions will be made to this rule with regard to either letters or inclosures. Aur will the editor exte manuscripts.

EXCISE LAW AND RESPONSIBILITY. which will eventually result in placing play for the wine the liquor trade of the city en. In speaking of Mr. Forbes's purchase of tirely in the hands of the men sector stanford's two-year-old stallon band. When a woman lets her husband who prove themselves best fitted to Acton, Mr. Robert Bonner says it is possible think that she has perfect confidence in him.

afferre to-day Those who violate so just a law can be speed. promptly detected and much more eatily punished than the men who the following letter addressed to "The these days go against a Gleaner is self-explanatory; about is certainly one much to be desired.

THE POINTS OF ATTACK. In its warfare upon the dives of New York, THE EVENING WORLD does not intend even a glancing blow for the ordinary and respectable concert halls of the city. It has not a word to say against the orderly, well-kept resorts where a nan ra to leisurely sip the sods, lemenade, or boer, as family taste or enston may

It is the low-down places where thiever and shameless characters congregate, where there is no security to life or property, where men are made drunk that factous looking characters " from hurbody they may be robbed, against which THE EVENING WORLD shafts are turned. Into these dons of iniquity are the rays of the search-light directed and of their hitherto defaut keepers is it said that " The outlaws must go " and are going.

BEN FRANKLIN with being indirectly the inventor of the trolley system and wishes he had the old sage advice in the present trolley dilemma in the City of Churches.

Franklin, as an electrician and philosopher, was ahead of his own age, It is safe to assume that such a man would not be behind this age. If the best results of progress were promisingly close at hand, he sould hardly advise taking anything ess for what would prove a long period. He would probably sustain Mayor Boont's ratic National Committee will decide in what city the National Convention shall be neld. Of all places New York is the best. Delegates will be best entertained FUESCRIPTIONS TO THE EVENING WORLD here, the greatest in betus will here be They Compare Notes in the Columns given to the cause of Democracy, this is the most interesting of towns to visitors, there is here the best of Spring and Sum mer weather, and this city is so necessible from all directions as to leave the other advantages in full and undisturbed sway.

It may be true, as an acquaintance of the crazy prisoner believes, that the crank Entered at the Post-Office at New York as second arrested in front of Jay Gould's house would not have attempted violence. His delusion was that he was to marry Mr. Gorno's daughter. Experience has between 31st and 32st ata, New York.

ERCOKLYN-309 Washington St. HARLEMNews Department, 150 East 123r St. Advetissments at 237 East 11brs St.

FRILADELPHIA, Fa - LEDGER BUILDING, 117.

Bute it may have been that this fellow was put under restraint while still, as the doctors say, "harmless,"

> News comes from Philadelphia that convicted ex-City Treasurer Bandshey is verkening in his prison cell and may presently tell everything. The fact that up to this time he has told nothing has probably kept several of his old bank and treasury associates from retirement to the Eastern Penitentiary. The present Editor, Evening World, Pulitzer Building, tidings will furnish food for pleasant reflection to these individuals.

Two downtown thugs, arrested for months' sentence each for assault yester. day because the stranger they held up couldn't stay in town long enough to carry out proceedings on the other charge. Some way to spoil the luck of such fellows should be promptly devised.

The American people are capable of making history whenever imperatively required to do so. They do not need to be forced unwillingly into an unpecessary war to prove their patriotism and valor. The Administration will do well to remember this in connection with its conduct of the Challan affair.

An East Eleventh street woman found and read her leashand's dury and straightway scented a case of "another woman Now there is trouble in the family, and from the incident comes at least the adapt my personality and the home so far as moral that a bushand should beware the possible to meet his wants. deadly diary.

South African miners propose to exhibit 100,000 ounces of gold at the World's Fair It will make an attractive exhibit and counting with its cash value the interest that it won't be earning while at the Fair. it will also be an expensive one " Is a Chilian squadron coming?" Not unless unwisely invited by way of Wash.

THE CLEANER

Wait Whitman, I see, has so far recovered from his recent attack of pneumonia that he is able to sit up in bed and read the newspapers. He has become more cheerful, and expresses a desire to live. This will be gind of all that transpires. Be far-reaching in nent citizen. I can do it if I have a tidings to the many friends of the "good your ideas and conservative in your opinions."

Another record for the White Star Line. The twin-screw freight steamship Tauric arrived from Liverpool Jesterday, having completed a voyage in the days. And yet is does not seem very long-line alone days was considered a quick trip for a passenger steamship.

Two triends of the Gleiner, members of a strict prohibition family, were playing some harmess game the other evening, having agreed privately beforehand that the loser was to stand a small bottle. At its conclusion the loser remarked: "Well, I will have to buy the waternacion." The terrible small boy, who had been an unobserved listener to the wise compact, spoke up: "Waternation."

Another record for the White Star Line. The terrible small boy, who had been an unobserved listener to the wise compact, spoke up: "Waternation."

You can conquer every obstacle that may be thrown in your way, if you do not destroy your own force by getting angre.

See thrown in your way, if you do not destroy old man, do you know what you have done?"

"Good—shake much obliged! Say, old man, do you know what you have done?"

"You can conquer every obstacle that may be thrown in your way, if you do not destroy your own force by getting angre.

Reep a clear head. A wife needs to look to be the rown in your an and orth hereefs to look to be thrown in your way, if you do not destroy your own force by getting angre.

Reep a clear head. A wife needs to look to be thrown in your way, if you do not destroy your own force by getting angre.

See and orth hereds to look to be thrown in your way, if you do not destroy old man, do you know what you have done?"

"You have not only saved me from containers now heat on the road to success. I feel it. I know it. Pin going to get there or perish in the attempt."

"I hope so."

"And to seal the bargain and to prove to you that I am not an ingrate, I am now a easy and pleasant one to wield. Mrs. Y."

"And to seal the bargain and to prove to what?" I asked, as he hesitated. New York must have before long will the wine compact, spoke up: "Watermelon's not only be one easier to enforce, but one That such that So. Under Harry said you would meet the responsibilities involved. The that his phenomenal record of 2.10% may be and relies on his superior strength and judgbe most grateful to those citizens who are position on the training methods employed disturbed over the condition of excise by the sensor at his Palo Alto farm, where derre to day.

To this end the adoption of a moderate when a year old are ready for work on the Sunday license provision will give aid. It is the time their second birthday arin these days go against a statue the unjustness of which is manifest to the citizen who thinks of the question fairly and broadly. Dealers who will benefit by the new law and live up to it will lend their aid towards making its enforcement complete.

It will come to be the best policy of every licensee to live up to his incase.

A law that shall bring this condition about is certainly one much to the day.

Gleaner is self-explanatory.

In 1885, I made a collection of a Mystic leaders. A lady in connecticul sent me a letter written Nov. 20, 1885, had it was to be opened at stated times, some to set will end year. A lady in connecticul sent me a letter written Nov. 20, 1885, had it was to be opened at stated times, some to say the sent me a letter written Nov. 20, 1885, had it was to be opened at stated times, some to say the sent me a letter written Nov. 20, 1885, had it was to be opened at stated times, some to say the sent me a letter written Nov. 20, 1885, had it was to be opened at stated times, some to say the sent me a letter written Nov. 20, 1885, had it was to be opened at stated times, some to say the sent me a letter written Nov. 20, 1885, had it was to be opened at stated times, some to say the say the sent me a letter written Nov. 20, 1885, had it was to be opened at stated times, some to say the say Fepular With Ali Farties. Le most popular brand of American " tin that which is being issued from the Sub-Treasury and which bears the date 1802.

The Quakers Are Jealous.

I From the Philadelphia Times. A New Yorker getting the House restausuggests that just now, between taking may take his family to hear the unwic and what it wants and getting what it asks for, to leisurely sin the sods, lemonade, or that State has a sort of bulge on pretty nearly everything that's going.

Few Are Above Suspicion.

(From the Konsus City Star )
Everybody who has visited Mexico will be

From the Cincinnati Times-Star. ] bir Edwin Arnold likes the Americans more and more, and now says we remind him of the ancient Greeks. The Greeks of old were Mayor Boost, of Brooklyn, credits a lively and sethetic collection of seven by nice communities, but there is one objection

On Thursday of this week the Demo American Wives Who Manage Their Husbands and Homes.

of "The Evening World."

Interesting Solutions of an Important Domestic Problem.

"American women have very well defined ideas of the art of husband-managing," were the comment of a reader of the letters published in this column. The letters grow in interest, showing that the subject is close to the feminine heart.

flundreds of contributions are received daily, from which it is only possible to select a few for publication. All, however, will be considered in awarding the prize. The con-test is governed by the following: CONDITIONS.

THE EVENING WORLD will give a gold double eagle to the troman toho shotes best "How to Manage a Husband." The plan num to contained in 2000 hundred to written on one side of the paper, have the writer's name and address (not necessarily for publication), and be directed to liveband

Make Yourself Necessary to Him.

Let the wife first learn how to manage herself. Let her alm to impress her husband highway robbery, got off with a six with the happy conviction that she is just the kind of a woman he took her to be. should never give him reason to suspect that those qualities by which she first impressed him and won his love were only affected; that the real woman, and quite a different woman, was concealed beneath the mask of courtship.

woman, was concealed beneath the mask of courtship.

Let her remember that a husband's love for his wife comes as a internal sequence to the qualities he sees in her to love. Let her cultivate these qualities and study to be noble and womanly in all things.

Let her not forget that every life is the reflection of its environment; that she is the first environment in her husband's life; that hove is the enables of perfect satisfaction.

Attract your busband to you, and you will find him, conclosing or unconsciously, yielding to your every wish, and often anticipating it; and he will reflect your virtues.

Mrs. J. H. P.

Judicious Letting Alone.

To the Littler

I do not like the word "managing." I would make the husband happy by studying his disposition, tastes and habits. Then Never by fault-finding or foolish bantering Never by fault-finding or foolish bantering put him in a position to lose his self-respect. That barrier once broken down is hard to replace and leave no mark. Bo your own dultes patiently and sweetly, believing the knowledge of his own will come to him without prompting.

Having made the home for him a pleasant and restful place, with always a warm welcome for his friends. I would not always expect his presence there. I would so respect his individuality that there should be no barriers set. I would shaply trust him to go and come, as a man worthy of the name should be trusted, and his honor thus tested will always bear the strain. On his return I would not receive him like the marryr wife, but welcome lim as one receives the "thrice welcomed guest."

come him as one receives the "thrice wol-comed guest."
Common sense, guided by love, makes man a success as a husband.
SADIK.

Never Lose Your Temper.

Never, never get angry, no matter what hap-

You can conquer every obstacle that may

Comes Natural to Manage

it seems to come perfectly natural for a ment. It is rarely that he will abuse that trust.

Little thoughiful attentions please almost every man. These cost nothing and help to bind a man to his home.

Of course it is essential to have a well-ordered household. Every woman should remember that on her husband rests the responsibility of taking care of her and her ittle ones, and all small cares and worries should be kept from him as far as possible, as he has pleaty to do to think of the greater ones.

Be his companion as far as possible, and he will not look for companionship elsewhere, will not look for companionship elsewhere.

will not look for companionship elsewhere. There are few men who would not rather be in their own happy home than anywhere else. Mrs. D.

Let Him Think He's Not Managed. The best way of managing a husband is to do so without his knowing it. Give him your do so without his knowing it. Give him your ideas, but never coax or persuade him, for then he will want his own way and become gale, his trumpeting could be heard around the then he will want his own way and become stubborn. Men, as a rule, do not want to be "bossed," as they call it.

Study his ways and tastes and try and do everything to please him. Keep well posted on current topics and use good judgment in all your actions, and he will come to the conclusion that by consulting you he will not be the loser.

Don't be selfish, but allow him some freedom after business hours, and if he is a man who can appreciate a good wife he will alwho can appreciate a good wife he will al-ways say "there is no place like home." EXPERIENCED.

Men Cannot Be Driven. Be as polite and attentive to your husband as in the courtship days. Always look your pretticat and be your wittlest in his presence Don't vent irritability, caused by household worries, &c., upon him. Make yourself the light of his life, but don't Exerptody who has visited Mexico will be anxious to know how the polle tell sus, and that councies, anxious to know how the polle tell sus, and the polle tell

Never Answer in Anger.

The wife's true mission is, first, to help her husband in the government and training of don't like the breed. However, I am going to the family. In no way could she better adther aces to morrow, and, if you choose, you minister to her husband's happiness than by

Delight the Gentler Ser.

Making a Bargain. I was down in Washington street the other afternoon, when I encountered a lone man sitting on an oil turret. He didn't look a bit happy, and I stopped to divide my roast chestnuts with him and see if he couldn't be chirked up a little. " Look here, old man," he said, after a bit, "this is a cold world, isn't it?"

" And I'm one of that crowd, I'm dead broke."

'Yos. " No home or friends."

"Walking around on my uppers and going down bill every hour in the day." That's evident."

ne continued, "and so you know what I had about concluded to do ?" "Yes; take a header off the wharf."

" I sat here thinking the case all over,

"Exactly. Wouldn't you do it?" "Hardly. Have the rest of these chest. nuts? A dead man isn't of much use to anybody. About all you can do with him is to erect a monument over his grave with an epitaph telling of his many virtues. "That's so that's so. I don't suppose they'd do that by me, however, even if my body was recovered. If you didn't go off the wharf what would you do?"

"Brace up hunt for a job-go to work rips old age, beloved by many, mourned by all." "Yes, I suppose that's the proper caper, but I've got to have something to brace against. Empty pockets won't give a man any toe hold. Look here!" " Well?" " I'll make a souare, fair bargain with on. If you'll start me off with a quarter I'll resolve to brace up. It will encour. In to nosh with the "stick," so that the um ive years I'll be an Alderman of this town: in ten I'll be Governor of the State. What d've say?" "Can't you do it on a dime or fifteen cents?

"I wouldn't guarantee to. Fact is I'm willing to start on a good deal less than any of our big men did, but don't shave it down too fine. Give me some leeway. Don't decide in a hurry, but take time to think it over. This is on the dead, you know. If I take your quarter lightning when there is a prairie on fire or a to the consistent and take a business-like view | I get up and hustle and become an emistampede in a neighbor's cattle yard. starter.

Well, I think I'll do it. " "Good -shake much obliged! Say, to you that I am not an ingrate, I am now them for at least an hour and

" fo what?" I asked, as he hesitated. "To come down on the next corner and have a glass of beer with me !"

WORLDLINGS. Amest arnot, the wife of the President of France cording to a traveller's story, to see a nursing infant with a quid of tobacco in its mouth, The Count Casa Mirauda, the new Spanish Minis ter to Stockholm, is well known as the husband of Christine Nilsson. He is in straitened circum-

VAGRANT VERSES

Punishment. Upon the street in broad daylight He sat down in a chair Where misspelled letters told the tale That show were polished there.

And, as he sat with sheepish smile, it almost made him swear. As he saw every friend he had Walk slowly by that chair. Right. She saw him off upon the train.
And showed that parting was but pain.
At every stopping place, " whe said.
Be sure you write, then go ahead."

Keep Cool. Is a lion in the may?

Keep cool.

Tell him you request his pride.
Tell bim that the world is wide.
And that he must stand aside.

Keep cool.

Wanted a Pointer.

- Exchange

Mr. Beastly—Say, old chap, I have a thoroughbred fox terrier; you may have him if you like. Mr. Grandstand-No, thanks, old fellow; I Charming Dress for Blonde Little Girls-Evolution of the Um. brella-Hats, Fans and Rugs of Peacock Plumage-Birthday Cruets of Gold and Silver.

cears is of French gray cloth made with a apped front, bishop sleeves and gathered skirt. Guimpe of dark green bengaline, with the edging on wrists, neck and opening. One of tan cloth has the guimpe of golden for cuffs, revers around the low neck and a girdle beit. Did rose cloth is lovely with plack or golden-brown velvet, and turquoise

Hats, fans, muffs and interor rugs are made of peaceck plumage and they are most beau-

England the courageous man who carried the new-tangled invention was followed and jeered at by a legion of small boys and mobbed by a crowd of hackney coachmen, who accused him of destring to destroy their business. And the difference between the -become an emment citizen-die at a who accused him of desiring to destroy their business. And the difference between the original unwieldy fabric of canvas and whale. one and the present style of umbrella! have gradually been improving and endeavering to obtain the neatest possible appearance, combined with the greatest strength, and the very latest invention is made with a light but decidedly strong steel tube, which is fluted on fou sides, thus enabling the ribs, when closed, to age me to persevere and climb up. In brella can literally be rolled up within the compass of an ordinary stick. Tailors as well as modistes now furnish an umbrella the same color or tone as the suit or costume

The editor of the Edgerly Mail, a Dakota daily, bears the bewitching name of Miss Vinnie Hall, Miss Vinnie, it is said, keeps a manicure set in her desk and rubs up the haif moons in the plak hails of her pretty fingers while giving the boys their assignments. All the same she is a hustler, and

The birthday cruets for sait and pepper ar made of coin silver and provided with a 14carat gold top. It is good to think, however that the sait does not lose its savor wher kept in a plated bottle or a 25-cent creation n mottled glass.

The following paragraph is taken from t London paper: Mrs. Besant, who has just reurned from a brief visit to America, reports that lectures are very popular in the and that people are willing to pay a dollar to hear a discourse, which they scarcely would do in England. But the dollar paid, they require good measure, and are pointed if the lecturer does not harangue half. Mrs. Besant, necording to the American fashion, was questioned as she went along, and appears to have been no whit discomitted by this unaccustomed form of procedure. Aboard the City of Paris, or her way home, she gave in the salcon, "by general desire" a lecture, at which Lord Aber deen occupied the chair.

Mrs. Russell Sage is a much more liberand appreciative employer than her famous ausband. The other day a new dress came rom her dressmaker, and it was so well made and such a good fit that she expressed he lelight by sending the artiste a big mines ple. Madame was good enough to ask the fitters to help her cet it, and eight cases o nightmare were reported the next day. Unhappy Error.

(From Texas SQuings. )
"What in thunder did you put in that glass f soda?" he gasped. " Whiskey," replied the clerk. "You "I winked? My young friend, one of my eyes are made of glass. I'm a temperance apostic."

Good Advice.

[From Judge.]
Actress—I've eloped, had my diamond stolen, had one hundred thousand dollars left me by a relative, secured a divorce, played in several popular pieces, and yet I am not famous. What can I do to become opular? Friend—Retire from the stage. Scarcely Sympathetic. Miss Leftover—For more than twenty years this golden circlet with its spark of living light had been a bud of promise. It will yet blossom and bear rich fruit.

Mrs. De Witt-Indeed? I should think the frosts of so many Winters would have blasted [From the Rider and Driver.] "I can't understand these poets. Here's this Shakespeare fellow talking about stones preaching sermons." !

"There's nothing remarkable about it Why, every wagen has a tongue!" If the Cap Fits. Girl (at plane, just been singing)-Man's voices." Repartee. [From Comic.] Small Man (to tall man)-Upon my word, ou are as stupid as you are tall!

Vaulting Ambition. "Was he hurt by falling at the hurdle ?" Yes; but he hopes to get over it."

THE WAYS OF WOMAN FAIR. GENERAL SPORTING NEWS. PLAYERS AND PLAY-HOUSES.

Fads, Fancies and Fashions That Everything Clear for the Maher- Diva Nordica's Engagements in Choynski Fight.

With the New York Club.

Admirers or good boxing are all pleased at the prospect of a match between Peter Mahe and Joe Cheynski. A cable despatch from Tony Sage has given Maher the desired on portunity to begin fighting his way towards the championship, Before Capt. Williams, the representative of the Olympic Athletic Club, of New Orleans cabled to Maher's Irish backer for permission to allow Peter to meet Choynski, Billy Mad len, Maher's manager, said: "I would be only too glad to let Maher stand up against Choynski if Sage is willing."

and show what he can do with a man of his Godfrey, who was put to sleep by Maher a Philadeiphia Saturday night, while not much of a fighter, is the kind of a man that champions often stumble against. Maher showed ability in the contest with Godfrey that few people thought he possessed, the main feature being his two-nanded action.

Now every one interested seems willing enough, and Peter will have a chance to fight

Joe Choynski, who is expected to meet Maher at New Orleans Feb. 27, is not a champion but is a clever man. He has been de-feated, but has made several very game batties, and will give Maner a chance to show what stuff he is made of.

One decisive victory for Maher over such a man will give him a chance to set fighters of a higher grade to training. Neither Maher or his manager can convince the public that he is a champion in the rough by talk. A match with Choynekl is a step in the right direction. The Union Athletic Club will have a "stag" racket Jan. 30. The Club has a first-class quartet, composed of Hilly McCarthy, Dan McLeckien, James Robinson and George Smith, who will enliven the occasion. There will be a three-round go between Jack Collins, of the Unions, and Andy Keily, of the Varunas.

Varunas.

The Club's cross-country team is being trained by the newly elected captain, dames caroon, who is a very elever long distance . . .

Members of the Nonnarell Boat Ciub are working hard under Capt. Billy Cody's tute-lage. Most of the work is being done by candi-dates for the double-scalls and the interme-date eight. Capt. Cody expects to have his Club well represented in these events in this season's regattas.

The Titan Athletic Club is pushing thing for another "stag," which will be held at its rooms Jan. 30. Several of the crack boxers of other prominent clubs have promised to The Ravenswood Boat Club of Long Island City will hold its annual election of officers to-uight. The event was postponed, owing to the mails of the Star Athletic Club's boxing Jack McAuliffo seems well satisfied with arrangements for his match with Billy Myer, to be fought at New Orleans March 2. McAuliffe has said that he would wait and fight the winner of the Gibbons-Myer mill. As this battle is not likely to be fought, Jack did not nesitate to agree to meet his old not a said of the same of the Gibbons. not hesitate to agree to meet his ob opponent. The Olympic Club has hung up a large purse.

Johany Griffin is very anxious to meet Eddie Avery. As Avery is out with a chal-lenge to meet any one in the world at 105 pounds Griffin will have little trouble in ar-ranging a contest.

Peter Jackson, the great colored fighter of Australia, will spar at a playhouse in Brook-iyn te-night.

Bummer Pete-Now, Bill, you can't deny dat Mr. Depew is a great after-dinner peaker. Tramping Bill-But I claim dere is em bryonic talent dat can knock him silly. Now, fer instance, you or me might be able to do him if we could only get a chance at de dinner. I tell you. Pete, opportunity makes de man.

Generous to a Fault.

"You've forgotten something, sah," said he offensive watter. "Never mind," replied the trascible old

The Same, but Smaller. What a beautiful carriage that is !" "Oh, Pve owned many of them in my time."
" Had a big stable and coach-house, eh?"
" Oh no—had fourteen children!"

A Homely Comparison.

[From the Jewellers' Weekly.]
Jeweller-This watch don't require a key.

coming round to tune the plane, to-morrow."

Friend—H'm! Pity that he can't tune calf, ain't it? Twist its tall an' away it goes. Repented in Haste. [From Fruth.] He—They married in haste. She—And repented at leisure, I suppose? He-No, their repentance was quite as hasty as their marriage.

You wind it by turning the stem, so,

Tall Man (to small man)—And you are as clever as you are short. A Fitting Response. [From Comic.] Smith (beyond)—Hullo! there's Jones; he brown—Yes; and ne's got it " badly."

New York and London.

Danny Richardson Expected to Sign A Pathetic Incident at the Standard Theatre.

> Mme. Lillian Nordica was not in the cast of " Fidelio" at the Metropolitan Opera-House Saturday afternoon, but she was there as a spectator, and she "circulated" about the lobby chatting with friends in good Italian and in better English. Mme. Nordica dresses very sedately. She wore nothing but black. "I am going to sail for Europe on the 30th inst.," she said; "and I am sorry, because if I had remained here I should have been able to sing Carmen, in which role I made a great success in Mexico. However, it cannot be. I have engagements at the Albert Hall in London, and at the symphony concerts in the St. James Hall, London. They are engagements of long standing, and cannot be broken. You see, "with a smile, that we singers have a little honor to our redit. Art doesn't absorb it all, as many people say. They declare that any noble qualities that a horse-dealer may possess are absorbed by the horse. The operas, however, don't get all our good characteristics." Mme. Nordica will appear once more in "L'Africaine" next week. She spoke of her mishap on Friday when a sudden attack of deafness seized her. "The orchestra appeared to be a mile away," she declared, "and all I could hear was Lassatle's voice that made me crazy. No, such a thing has never happened before, and I don't want to experience it again. And then to think, it was reported that I was at loggerheads with Vianesi, the dear old chap!

It is said that Patti has received an offer in England of £5,000 for the manuscript of her book, "People 1 Have Met." The same authority declares that the book will be ready this year.

Little Elsie Leslie-or little Elsie Leslie's monimer-is very much werried because they have been advertising a performer at Koster & Blaff's Concert liall of the Same hame as hers. She thinks that her friends will believe that she has become a variety actress instead of a legitimate arrist. The little lady is still playing her dual role in "The Prince and the Pauper." . . .

There was a pathetic speciacle at the matinee performance of "Miss Helyett" at the Standard Theatre Saturday. At the back of the house, among the standers-up, was a wan-looking man in an invalid's cheir. He was a victim of parasysts, and was unable to even move his head, which was turned towards the stage. Everybody who looked at him became suddenly grave, and he had come to watch a performance in which dancing and movement played considerations native. and movement played conspicuous parts.

The rehearsals of "A Temperance Town at the Madison Square Theatre will begin Feb. 29. Hoyt binself will direct them. Sig. de Vivo, in the interests of Italian literature, has compiled a list of the successful plays of Giuseppe Glacosa, author of "La Dame de Challant." Here is the list "Partita a Scalchi" (a game of chess). "Trionfo d'Amore" (triumph of love; "Conte Rossi, "Acquazzoni di Montagna" (heavy showers on the mountains); "Tristi Amori" (sad loves); "Le Marfonette," and "Resa a Discrezione" (rendered to discretion). Giacosa also wrote six fallures.

tion). Glacosa also wrote six fallures Mrs. Leslie-Carter has bought a pair of Mrs. Harriet Avery-Strakosch, the wife of Edgar Strakosch, of Mr. Abbey's forces, has been engaged to appear in "A Trip to China-town." The young woman is a comic opera singer, formerly a member of the McCauli Opera Company. She appeared in "The May Queen" when it was presented at Wallack's Theatre.

The four little Barrison sisters have been engaged to go on the road with "La Cigale." They were engaged by Lilian Russell on Saturday. They visited the Russell in her dressing-room at the Garden Theatre and she received them very charmingly. The little Barrisons declare that they have never met such a lovely lady. . . . Here is what an English writer says of the theatre-going wemen who giggle indiscrimi-nately—you know them, of course: "Aun man who has been privileged to attend these man who has been privileged to attend those cleustian mysteries known as 5 o'clock teas must have observed what curious causes provoke laughter among ladies; how they will laugh at anything and remain grave in the presence of jests such as might nave made old Nestor hold his sides. So at the theatre, the female portion of the audience giggle when there is no excuse for merriment, and sometimes allow the best tokes to lass with.

times allow the best jokes to pass with-

The Millionaire Denies It and Fellowcraft Clubmen Practically Will Fight a Damage Suit.

It is announced to-day that Broger's Clerk W. R. Laidlaw, who was so severely injured by the exploding bomb in Russell Sage's office, Dec. 4 last, has not yet fully decided to bring suit against the multi-millionaire for clubs has at last taken a more definite shape. damages, to be claimed on the ground that Mr. Sage shielded himself from the bomb by interposing Laidlaw's person between himself and Dynamiter Norcross.

It is also stated that Russell Sage has destanding might become a member of the brought on this ground. The millionaire denies positively that he

The millionaire denies positively that he attempted to save himself at the expense of Mr. Laidiaw. He declares that from the spoke to no one; that he did not shake hands with Mr. Sage nor any one clse, nor did the latter touch him in any way.

According to Mr. Sage's statements, Laidiaw did not stand between the millionaire and the dynamiter at any time. Laidiaw, hessays shood next to the partition, at least five feet from Mr. Sage, with a chair between them.

Additional facts are cited to prove that Mr. Sage did not use Laidiaw as a shield. All the millionaire's wounds (forty-seven in number) are in front, in the face, chest, legs arms and hands, and the front of his coat, waistcoat, trousers and underclothing was burned and blackened. These would indicate that Mr. Sage was shielded by no one and that he had no protection.

It is Mr. Sage's opinion that Laidiaw was struck in the back by a portion of the partition, at the moment the explosion occurred.

Mr. Laidiaw has now been in St. Vincent's little and the process of the fellowcraft of the conditions imposed.

The Lotes Club, at the same meeting, decided to abandon its present quarters, at Twenty-first street and fifth avenue, on May I, when the lease of the club-house expires, and will nove into a handsome new home at claded to bring a sult for damages.

PREPARING FOR A GALA TIME. Foresters to Drill and Dance in Madison Square Garden.

The Ancient Order of Foresters of America Association is making great preparations for the annual ball and competitive drill of Sir Knights of Sherwood Forest, to be held at the Madison Square Garden Amphitheatre, Tuesday evening, Jan. 26. The various conclaves of this and adjacent cities are in constant practice for the coming cities are in constant practice for the coming contest for a handsomely engraved and gold-mounted Sir Knight's sword and scabbard. Several well-known military gentlemen will omiciate as judges of the drill. The supreme officers of the order will attend in a body, and also numbers of Foresters from Boston, Fall River, Holyoke, Providence, Newport, New Haven, New Jersey and Brooklyn.

There will be two bands of music—one for the dance and one for the promenade.

in all its original elegance, and is a positive and perfectly safe cure for baldness. Stops hair from falling. Makes it grow thick and long. NO DYE. Seven Sutherland Sisters' Scalp Cleaner is the only Dandruff Cure. For shampooing it has no equal, Sold by all druggists and SEVEN SUTHERLAND

FLINT'S FINE FURNITURE UNUSUAL BARGAINS.

We have reduced from 20 TO 50 PER CENT, the prices of a number of ELEGANTLY COV-ERED PARLOR SUITS. Our reason is, they are perishably covered goods, of which we have too large a stock for the season Also. quantity of BEDROOM SUITS IN ALL WOODS, handsome patterns, which we posi-tively guarantee have been marked down in some instances 50 PER CENT., much below cost of CEO. C. FLINT CO.: FURNITURE MAKERS, 104, 106 AND 108 WEST 14TH ST.

Everything else in FURNITURE, BED-DING and DRAPERIES; newest styles and "BUY OF THE MAKER."

production

DEMAND CONNOLLY'S SCALP.

Factory, 154, 156 West 19th St.

nlaid floors, wainscoting, and all kinds of hard-word work.

Central Labor Organizations Denounce the Factory Inspector. Organized labor is pushing its fight for the emoval from office of Chief Factory Inspector onnolly, and resolutions by the two great central bedies of this city calling upon Gov. Flower to appoint a new man are made pub lic to-day. In yesterday's meeting of the Central Labor Union there was a heated debate over the resolutions, attempts being made to amend them by including denunciation of the State Board of Arbitration and the Bureau of Labor Statistics. The amendments were defeated, and the resolution urging the Governor to re move Connelly was adopted. Resolutions of the same purport were yesterday adopted by the New York Federayesterday adopted by the New York Federation of Labor. The action of the State Federation, in demanding a successor to Connolly, was indersed.

It was stated that President Samuel Gompers had personally urged Gov. Flower not to rea; point conneily, and the Governor had promised to hold the appointment for at least a month.

Mr. Gompers, it is said, reminded Gov.
Flower that labor interests had received no mention whatever in the annual message, and urged upon him that such ignoring was likely to have a bad effect.

WAS LAIDLAW SAGE'S SHIELD? LOTOS FAVORS THE PLAN.

Invited to Join Forces. As indicated by THE EVENING WORLD of Saturday last, the plan looking towards the amalgamation of the Lotos and Fellowcraft

At the special meeting of the Lotos Club ou

Saturday evening a resolution was proposed by Mr. Robert Glover, providing that any termined to contest any suit that may be Lotes, the initiation fee being remitted, if the candidate received the incorsement of the Governors of the Pellowcraft Club.

Butter, 3oc. per pound, Sugar, 5c. " " all wasted, if by the use of some cheap, inferior baking powder the cake is spoiled. Always use the "Royal," and good luck will attend every baking, with light, cake and pastry, and no good Flour, 5c. " " Eggs, 3oc. " dozen, sweet, wholesome and delicious materials wasted in spoiled, uneatable food.